Just call me Cora for short, single, no kids but I look after my sister's eldest daughter - supported her to school and now a successful certified public accountant.

Am a university graduate and work as a pantry manager in a Catholic school before I came to work abroad. Am the second born of a big family, I have 2 sisters, eldest in a public school head secondary department, other sister is Catholic school registrar. Brother 4th born, commission on election assistant officer. 5th born brother, secondary school teacher, youngest brother - work and live in Canada with family.

I work in Hong Kong for more than 10 years with different families that are not stable in Hong Kong, they kept on moving places. I would like to find and couple with pet or able elderly that live in Hong Kong Island or bachelor that I can work long term.

Am a hardworking person, honest, willing to learn new thing and employer way, flexible and adaptable, very patient.

I have experience travelling with employer (Asia) but I also have US visa. I always look to my employer's welfare and their family. I follow their rules and respect their culture, custume, and tradition. Am a very easy to communicate, adaptable and flexible to whatever employer's way.

I look forward in seeing you soon

Thank you so much
