JACKIE

Filipino | Catholic | Married | 40 years old | 3 kids
Philippines | 6yrs experience

Hello, my name is Jackie, and I am from Benguet, Philippines. I come from a humble and hardworking family, which has shaped me into a responsible and dependable individual.

My hometown is known for its beautiful landscapes and warm community, where I learned the importance of respect, patience, and hard work.

I am seeking work in Hong Kong to provide a better life for my family, especially for my children. I want to support their education and ensure a stable future. Working abroad also offers me a chance to grow personally and professionally while learning about a new culture.

I have more than six years of experience as a domestic helper in the Philippines. From 2015 to 2018, I worked with a family of four, caring for two young children—a 2-year-old boy and a 1-month-old girl—while managing household chores, car washing, and occasionally taking care of their dog. From 2019 to 2022, I assisted another family of three, focusing on elderly care by preparing diet meals, administering medications, and accompanying them to medical appointments. I also helped with newborn care, such as feeding, diaper changing, and putting the baby to sleep.

I am currently looking for a new employer because I want to expand my skills and provide my services to a family who values trust and mutual respect. I am open to any training opportunities to improve my skills further and adapt to the needs of my employer.

In my previous jobs, my daily routine involved cleaning, organizing, preparing meals, running errands, and taking care of children or elderly family members. I am skilled in multitasking and time management, ensuring that everything runs smoothly in the household.

While I don't have any formal certificates at the moment, I am eager and willing to take training or courses to enhance my qualifications and meet the needs of the family I work for.

As a person, I am hardworking, patient, and reliable. I enjoy cooking, organizing, and making a home comfortable and welcoming. In my free time, I like to learn new skills and explore ways to improve myself.

Thank you for considering my application. I am excited about the opportunity to work with your family and am committed to building a positive and respectful working relationship.
