RODJEN

Filipino | Catholic | Single | 33 years old | 0 kids
Philippines | 12yrs experience

My name is Rodjen, and I am writing to express my sincere interest in working in Hong Kong as a domestic helper. I come from a humble and hardworking family in the Philippines. My mother is a housewife, and my father is a carpenter. Growing up in Amlan, I have learned the values of perseverance, respect, and responsibility, which have shaped my strong work ethic and dedication to serving others.

I am a college graduate with a degree in Information Technology, which has equipped me with discipline, problem-solving skills, and adaptability—qualities that I believe are valuable in any job setting. I am eager to work in Hong Kong to provide a better future for my family while embracing new challenges and experiences. I have hands-on experience in various household tasks, including: Driving safely and responsibly, gardening with precision and care, cooking nutritious and delicious meals, car washing and maintenance, performing household chores efficiently, washing and ironing clothes, pet care with love and responsibility, elderly care with patience and respect.

Although I am a first-time worker overseas, I am highly motivated, quick to learn, and fully committed to performing my duties to the best of my ability. My goal is to work with an employer who values hard work, honesty, and professionalism. I am willing to undergo training and adapt to new responsibilities to ensure that I meet and exceed expectations.

I am looking for a kind and respectful employer who appreciates dedication and trustworthiness. I am prepared to take on a challenging yet fulfilling role where I can contribute meaningfully while continuing to learn and grow.

I appreciate your time and consideration. I sincerely hope for an opportunity to prove myself and become a valuable part of your household. Thank you, and I look forward to your positive response.
